Kia ora koutou e te whānau

Whakataka te hau ki te uru,
Whakataka te hau ki te tonga.
Kia mākinakina ki uta,

E hī ake ana te atākura

Tihei mauri ora

This is the first newsletter after sixteen days away from school; certainly, a somewhat shorter lockdown period than the one we experienced in 2020 but no less irksome. We are genuinely delighted to be back at school, albeit with the annoying Level Two restrictions that we have to live with, hopefully, not for too much longer.

I think there was a different public attitude to lockdown this year. In central Wellington - where I live - during the 2020 lockdown I could walk down the middle of Customhouse Quay and Willis St with complete abandon, oblivious to cars, buses and large articulated lorries. This time, however, I could not sashay lazily across roads and major highways, I had to use conventional road crossing protocols like using the lights and cross now symbols, designed to keep me safe in normal times. Also, this time I didn't have time to grow a moustache. What does this all mean!!!

We had 10 - 12 students at school during the Level Three and virtually a full complement on the first day back last Wednesday. This is quite different from our return after the 2020 lockdown where we had over a hundred students away for quite some time. I think the very quick return to, almost normal, is a very good thing and perhaps suggests a lower level of community anxiety. This is understandable considering we don't have any community transfer in Wellington.

We have opted for a return to school that emphasises wellbeing. The focus / foci is on re-connection, re-engagement and nurture. It is important that we recognise and respond to any residual anxiety that presents among our students and not implement practices at school that may exacerbate stresses. To this end we won't be accelerating learning in an attempt to try and make up for lost time as this would be counterproductive. It is a steady as she goes model, picking up the learning from where we were, through to the end of term.

I do want to thank parents for managing their lives through lockdown as well as trying to keep children engaged in distance learning. I want to add my thanks for your patience and compliance in adhering to the logistics around school entry and exit that we are obliged to maintain during Level Two.

Some Pithy Thoughts

“Keep your words soft and sweet just in case you have to eat them.”

“Children have more need of models than critics.”

“Life's uncertain; eat dessert first.”

Whakahari

RIMU SPOT

Rimu Arts Exhibition

On Thursday 5th August, Rimu syndicate showed a stunning performance of the arts, starring percussion, drama, visual, dance, and stop motion. A true night to remember, parents see another side to their kids, and definitely a good one.

A lot of practice had gone into this spectacle, almost a whole term! However, on the night, nervous jitters and exciting adrenaline filled the hall. A great bit of MCing by Takaetali Finau and Alissa Kay introduced the start of a fun, happy night.

Percussion, led by Mr Mac, 'swept' the audience off their feet, with household appliances making an amazing noise that no one expected. Later that night, a crazy round of beatboxing was made, with Ethan Tricker really spicing it up.

The dance was split with Bollywood style, Western American, Pacific, and Irish. It was great seeing some people step out of their comfort zone and onto the dance floor.

Beautiful artwork made by the next Picasso's were shown in all their glory to the eyes that gazed, transfixed. (I like that sentence).

Drama was based on Maori myths and legends, with how kiwi lost his wings, how Maui slowed the sun, and also found the secret of fire.

Stop motion brought helpless laughter to the audience, but don't be fooled, boy, it was hard!

So, as this helpful equation shows, (All the arts x kids + teacher help = AWESOME!!) It really was a brilliant night.

See you next time!

Matthew Gardiner (Yr 6)
